About Diesse LTD

On the surface, Diesse represents affordable luxury in the form of porcelain and ceramic tiles.

Dig a little deeper and you'll find its origins date back some thirty years when the company founder, Paul Seager began working in the tiling industry supplying some of the largest residential projects in the UK. Diesse buy in huge bulk for projects and pass those savings on to their customers which means they are incredibly competitive. No project is too small or large. Diesse can supply bespoke individual properties with a depth of design knowledge or multiple apartments where design and budget are the key focus.

One of the key principles for Diesse is how to treat people – both staff and customers. All companies have a dedicated account manager to help with their project. This means stock arrives on time with no costly delays. Stock is held at our warehouse just outside London with daily deliveries nationally.

Represented in our brochure is a small selection of the ranges that we promote. If you do not find the product you like please look at our website [www.diesse ltd.co.uk](http://www.diesse ltd.co.uk) or visit our design studio to make your selection. Samples can be sent for you to check colours and finish.

Please contact us if you would like to discuss your existing or new project via info@diesseltd.co.uk or call 01206 805455.

"Diesse have been superb at our Blackwall Reach project. Their commitment and design ideas on upcoming tile trends always help create the wow factor for our buyers. They come highly recommended."

Marbles

292x355 Hexagon, 330x330 Mosaic, 292x292
292x592, 592x592, 600x1200, 900x900mm

Diesse's marble selection is enriched with a program of mosaics in a stylistic union between veins and inlays. The opulence of the shades of marble and the play with the mosaic tiles create enlivened patterns, recreating magnificent frames that replicate three-dimensional shapes and different depths.

Plateau

292x292 Mosaic, 292x592, 592x592,
450x900, 900x900, 600x1200mm

Contemporary, modern and minimal. Plateau offers endless creative possibilities for both domestic and public spaces, thanks to colours that go from a light and bright shade, Bianco, to a dark and elegant one, Anthracite. A range where the chromatic variation enhances the unique features of the product.

Almena

592x592, 900x900, 600x1200mm

The beauty is in the detail with this versatile range of tiles. An array of stone effect tiles against which unusual and striking feature tiles can be used to create dramatic effects, the unique use of colour and texture in the Almena range caught our eye.
